

DNREC's Division of Parks & Recreation to host photography workshop at the Grass Dale Center in Delaware City

Annabelle Fichtner performs treatment to restore a historic photograph.

DELAWARE CITY – DNREC's Division of Parks & Recreation will host a photography preservation workshop from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 5 at the Grass Dale Center, 108 North Reedy Point Road, Delaware City, DE 19706. The event is free and open to the public.

The program, "Worth More Than 1000 Words: Identifying and Caring for Your Family Photographs," will be led by University of Delaware Art Conservation student Annabelle Fichtner. The hands-on workshop will teach participants how to identify and care for common types of photographs that may be in family collections.

Participants need not have prior experience in art or photograph conservation.
